Music MAYnia is a free community festival that features continuous live performances, instrument demos, games, arts & crafts, food trucks, and more!

Student performers of all ages and abilities will perform a music marathon on four stages, indoors and outdoors, ranging from classical to rock.

The event will be held rain or shine.

The school encourage attendees to ride its free event shuttle (with live music!) which runs on a continuous loop from the Jenks Center parking lot at 109 Skillings Road and from the Winchester Recreation parking lot at 263 Main St.

Handicap parking is available on site, and limited on-street parking is available in the area.

For more information, call 781-721-2950 or visit www.winchestermusic.org.
